EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

IN THE DRAWING:

- Figures 41-42 have been labeled as "Prior Art". See attachment.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-30 are allowable over the prior art of record because none of the prior art whether taken singularly or in combination, especially when these limitations are considered within the specific combination claimed, to teach: a semiconductor memory device comprising: a control circuit, among others as claimed in independent claim 1, used for timing control of data read of memory cells array, for outputting at least two type of timing signals as being different in accordance with a selected data area of the memory cell array; a logical/physical address conversion circuit, among other as claimed in independent claim 19, for exchanging an order of at least part of physical address to be sequentially selected by input logical address, address output thereof being input to a sense amplifier circuit.

Art Unit: 2818

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

- Hidaka (6,421,294) discloses a semiconductor memory device having large data I/O width and capable of speeding up data input/output and reducing power consumption.
